INSTITUTIONAL

Cerolini & Ferrari Abogados is a legal Firm that offers creative and innovative solutions to the needs of its local and international clients.

Our Firm has been positioned by clients and colleagues in the most prestigious international rankings among the main law firms in the country, due to the solid experience of its lawyers, a service-oriented service and a strong commitment to excellence.

Our main priority is understanding the business of our clients in order to help them to achieve their goals, through a tailored service, adjusted to their specific needs. With this aim, we offer highly specialized solutions in each of our practice areas.

PRACTICE AREAS

LITIGATION AND CLASS ACTIONS

Our experience is focused on complex judicial claims and arbitrations. We assist dozens of companies from different industries defending their interests in courts and before public authorities.

Our Firm specializes in commercial disputes between companies for breach of contracts, claims for damages, insolvency, corporate actions, administrative proceedings and debt collection. Our Firm has key expertise in consumer and environment class actions, where we assist the most important companies in the country in claims involving large sums of money.

CAPITAL MARKETS, BANKING AND FINTECHS

Our Firm has broad experience in the implementation of financial and capital markets transactions.

In this sense, we have successfully advised in bilateral and syndicated loans, import/export financings, public and private trusts for different purposes (securitization, guarantee, administration, etc.), issuance of secured notes, financing to the public sector (national, provincial and municipal), mutual funds, derivatives, project finance, infrastructure financing, and transfers of assets, among other operations.

In addition, our Firm actively participates advising banks, capital market agents and fintechs regarding the regulatory framework applicable to these institutions (National Exchange Commission, Financial Information Unit, Central Bank, and Argentine Stock Markets, among others).

CORPORATE LAW

We advise our clients in their daily activities regarding commercial contracts, insurance, regulatory matters, commercial strategies, investments, commercial networks, among others.

In addition, the Firm has broad experience in giving comprehensive advice on real estate transactions, local and foreign investments, trusts, business association contracts, among others.

Likewise, we assist our local and international clients in corporate matters, joint ventures, shareholder agreements, corporate conflicts, incorporations and corporate registers, reorganizations and representation of public and private companies.

CONSUMER LAW

Our team includes professionals with outstanding experience in the daily advice of companies and we handle their defense in individual and collective cases related to consumer law.

Our practice covers issues such as advertising campaigns, e-commerce, consumer contracts, mass products and services, among others. In particular, we assist our clients in markets such as banking, capital markets, retail, fintech, laboratories, among others.

We have participated in the defense of hundreds of consumer class actions and we have intervened in a large number of individual and collective negotiations and agreements.

In addition, we have daily dealings with consumer defense regulators across the country regarding administrative claims. Likewise, we perform risk and contingency analysis for our clients (preventive legal audits).

MERGERS AND ADQUISITIONS

Our lawyers are highly skilled in assisting our clients in the acquisition or sale of companies.

We have experience in transactions that involve companies with open or closed capital, both local or foreign.

Our team analyzes the transaction in a coordinated manner and adding value to our clients with the aim to find the structure that best fits the operation.

COMPLIANCE

Our Firm advises local and multinational companies in order to carry out an exhaustive regulatory compliance of the applicable legal system, as well as to develop, implement and maintain the compliance programs established by each of said companies.

Our professionals have experience in the analysis of good practices standards, codes of ethics and regulatory matters that impact on different industries (eg. anti-laundering and anti-corruption policies, consumer law, banking and capital market regulations, personal data protection, and policies of regulatory compliance and corporate ethics, among others).

Likewise, our practice also includes estimates of risks and contingencies, anti-corruption due diligences of third-party suppliers and training of internal officers.

TAX

We provide high added-value service both in contentious tax matters, as in tax advice and planning.

We have broad experience in tax litigation at national, provincial and municipal levels, applying groundbreaking procedural strategies and analyzing on a case-by-case basis the conditions and needs of each of our clients.

We participate in the assembly and improvement of tax schemes, at national and international levels, that allow concrete savings, maximizing the profitability of our clients' companies.
